*Participating in a homestay with a family from another country is a great way to learn about their culture. It's like visiting a new friend's house in a different place. You can see how they do things, what they eat, their traditions, and what's important to them. This helps us understand each other better and stops us from thinking wrong things about people who are different from us. It also makes us feel for others and talk to them even if we come from far away. For Japanese people who accept guests, it's a special chance to learn how to be a great host and make friends with people from other parts of the world. It helps us see the world as a big, friendly place where we all belong.

下記はテレビの視聴についての調査結果です。1、2それぞれの調査結果を読み、あとの問1～問2に答えなさい。(8点)

1 What kind of TV shows do you like to watch?

Most students chose “Comedy” as the kind of show they like to watch. A little fewer chose “Drama.” “News” was chosen by the fewest number of students. Other categories were “Action” in third place, and “Science Fiction” (SF) in fourth place. Results show that the majority of students lean towards light-hearted content since they like comedy so much. It is somewhat sad that so few students chose “News,” because students should have a better understanding of what is happening around them in real life.

Waiter : Welcome to Sakura Garden! How can I help you today?

Lisa : Hello! We've heard great things about this place. We're excited to have some Japanese food.

Waiter : Thank you for choosing Sakura Garden. You're in for a treat! Have you ever eaten at a Japanese restaurant before?

David : No, this is our first time. We're not familiar with Japanese food, so we might need some help.

Waiter : No problem at all! I'm here to help. Let's start with the drinks. We have a variety of refreshing options. What would you like to drink?

Lisa : I'll have a green tea, please.

Waiter : Excellent choice! Our green tea is aromatic and *soothing. And for you, sir?

David : What's the difference between green tea and matcha?

Waiter : Matcha is like green tea, but matcha is a powdered tea made from *finely ground green tea leaves. It has a *vibrant green color and a little stronger flavor than regular green tea.

David : Great! I'll have a matcha, please.

Waiter : O.K. Now, let's move on to the *entrees. We have many options to suit different tastes. Is there anything special you're looking for?

Lisa : I feel like eating something light and healthy. What would you *recommend?

Waiter : Our sashimi platter might be the best for you. It is fresh, thinly sliced raw fish served with soy sauce and wasabi. It's a great choice for seafood lovers.

David : That sounds interesting. But do you have any recommendations for something *savory?

Waiter : Absolutely! Our teriyaki chicken is a popular choice. It's grilled chicken marinated in a sweet and savory teriyaki sauce, served with rice and salad.

Lisa : I'll go with the sashimi platter, and my husband will have the teriyaki chicken.

Waiter : Wonderful choices! Is there anything else I can help you with, like *appetizers or side dishes?

David : We'll start with some edamame, please.

Waiter : Excellent! Our edamame is lightly salted and steamed, a perfect appetizer. Your orders will be ready shortly, and please let me know if you have any questions or need more help.

(The waiter leaves, and then comes back a few minutes later.)

Waiter : Here are your drinks and entrees. The green tea and matcha are hot, so be sure not to burn your tongues. Enjoy!

Lisa : Thank you!

David : Arigato!
